Increase the beauty and livability of your home with an attractive CONCRETE PATIO

Add to the pleasure of outdoor living and the beauty of your home by building a concrete patio. It makes an ideal place for your picnics and parties, and is a safe, clean place for children to play.

Whether you plan a simple patio or a more complete one with walls, barbecue pit and other accessories, build it with concrete. Durable concrete is low in first cost and gives years of service with little maintenance.

If you need help in building an attractive concrete patio, get in touch with one building material dealer or concrete masonry contractor in your area today.

PORTRAIT OF LEE PRESENTED TO MUSEUM

Mrs. John McKee, president of Kirkwood-Otey Chapter, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, of Lynchburg, presented a copy of a William E. West portrait of General Robert E. Lee, as a young man, in his uniform during the years 1831-1834, while stationed at Fort Monroe, to the National Park Service Museum at Old Appomattox Court House in a ceremony on Tuesday morning. It was received by H. A. Gurney, Park Superintendent.

Miss Lutie Jennings, a member of Kirkwood-Otey Chapter, was the instigator in securing this picture, which was donated to her by Mr. Mark Elcan, Editor of the Iron Worker, a magazine published by the Lynchburg Foundry Company. Miss Jennings presented the portrait to the chapter and the chapter had it framed. Mrs. McKee and Miss Jennings were accompanied here on Tuesday by Mrs. C. C. Steppe and Mrs. J. A. Flowers, chairman, of a chapter committee to have the portrait framed and presented. Mrs. O. H. Reynolds, a member of the committee, was unable to be present. Mrs. Calvin Robinson accompanied the group to the Museum for the presentation.

MRS. MOSES HOSTESS TO GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. C. T. Moses Jr. entertained members of the Garden Club Monday night, May 26, at 'open house' in her newly remodeled home.

After a short business meeting, a most interesting program with color slides was presented by Miss Gudrun Reimann, exchange teacher from Denmark.

Mrs. C. D. Staples, of Atlanta, Georgia, a former member of the Garden Club here, was welcomed as a guest at the meeting.

During the social hour which followed, Mrs. K. C. Gregory and Mrs. Frank Carr were honored and presented gifts from the club. Mrs. Gregory plans to move next week to Williamsburg, and Mrs. Carr is leaving soon to make her home in Richmond. The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of red roses in a silver container. Mrs. F. C. Dresser presided at the punch bowl.

This meeting of the club concludes the programs until resumed again in the fall.
